

IDWALA INDUSTRIAL HOLDINGS CAREER OPPORTUNITY

Idwala Industrial Holdings, with interests in lime, carbonates, magnetite and other industrial minerals in various locations, has an opportunity at its Danielskuil operation situated in the Northern Cape for:

A SynChem company

PRODUCTION MANAGER

Reporting to the General Manager the incumbent will be responsible for the following:

- Management of Kiln Production functions including Plant optimisation, quality and efficiencies
- Management of Coal and Refractory Control
- Management of Contractors operating within areas of responsibility
- The establishment of mining plans and the regular updating thereof
- Management of cost and capital budgets in the department
- Management of compliance to SHEQ systems
- The management of sub-ordinates, including succession planning, training and development
- The management of projects in the department in collaboration with suppliers and other role players

The ideal incumbent should have:

- A degree/diploma in Chemical Engineering/Processing/Mining OR Mechanical/Electrical Engineering OR equivalent qualification
- Sound knowledge of the relevant mining and production techniques applicable in open cast mining
- Experience in the management of staff
- Sound knowledge of relevant SHEQ systems
- A good track record regarding capital projects

Applications (accompanied by certified copies of qualifications) should be directed to: HR Administrator at PO Box 89, Danielskuil, 8405, or Alternatively fax personal details to (086) 751 1395, or e-mail to limerecruitment@idwala.co.za

Closing date for applications: 10 March 2018.

If you have not received an invite to attend an interview by the 16th March 2018, consider your application unsuccessful.
Recruitment for this position will be conducted with the intention of progressing our Employment Equity policy, targets and objectives.
The Company reserves the right not to fill this position.